Gardner voted against the conferreport on the ground that the bill sented "fake preparedness" and Republicans took the same view. The twenty-five members opposing the conference report on the final vote were: Republicans — Britten, Gardner, Gillette, Guernsey, Hadley, Humphreys, Husted, Johnson, Mann, Morris, Morgan, Nelson, Platt, Randall, Rogers, Sanford, Tinkham, Walsh, Wheeler. During the debate Representative Coady referred to published reports of a joker in the bill which provided unusual qualifications for the appointment of one of the officers in the Judge Ad-vocate General's department. This section, inserted in conference, read that the appointee must be from civil life "not less than 45 nor more than 60 years of age, who shall have been for ten years a judge of the Supreme Court of the Philippine Islands, shall have served for two years as a captain n the regular or volunteer army and shall be proficient in the Spanish lan-
